$22,452 FOR WESTERY WOMAN

Received by Mary L. Melville, Executrix of Estate of Geo. H. Melville—Petition of P. W. Dougherty Dismissed—Temperance Workers Adopt Original Name, Anti-Saloon League—Big Norwich Car on Ashaway Spur.

The petition of P. William Dougherty, who was denied a liquor license, for a writ of certiorari against the town council of Richmond, has been denied and dismissed by the supreme court. It was held by the court that the designation "Owen F. Denny, in Dawley's block, Main street, Westery," was sufficiently specific to fulfill the requirements of the law as to the location named in the application for a retail liquor license.

Dougherty claimed that the application was not specific enough, the reason being that there was more than one building in the main street of the village of Westery belonging to Mr. Dawley, and the petition was entitled to know the exact location of the place for which the license was sought, as he also owned property in that street. The opinion handed down by the court refers to a Cumberland case in which it was held that the notice of an application for a liquor license which simply stated "Robert Tripp, High street, Valley Falls," was insufficient, the court in that case saying that something more exact and definite was necessary in order that owners of lands within 300 feet might file objections. Referring to the present case, the court in the opinion says:

"It appeared at the hearing that Dawley's block is a well known building, formerly a tavern, and the only building so designated in that village, and that buildings therein are not numbered. A majority of the court are of opinion that the notice in case at bar is sufficient for that purpose."

The board of trustees has passed a resolution changing the name of the Rhode Island Anti-Saloon league, which means a return to the original name, changed seven years ago. This matter was definitely decided at the annual meeting in February. There was a meeting of the board of trustees Monday, and besides the resolution to amend the constitution for a change of name, reports were heard from delegates to the national convention of the Anti-Saloon league in Chicago Nov. 30 to Dec. 9.

Judge Edward M. Burke held regular Tuesday of the Westery probate court. The first and final account of the estate of George H. Melville was presented by Mary L. Melville, as executrix, who as residuary legatee received $22,452 of the estate of $36,320. The account was approved and ordered recorded. There is a balance due of $300 to Jessie Allen Boardman, aged 7, Gladys Lillian Boardman, aged 5, and Grace Albert Boardman, aged 2, $100 to each. These legacies were ordered paid to the children, through their father, Albert Boardman.

The will of Gideon T. Collins was presented for probate and the estate will not exceed $5,000. He bequeathed the whole estate to his wife, Abbie J. Collins, and nominated her as executrix of the estate. The will was witnessed by John W. Sweeney and William Hoxsey and admitted to probate. The nomination of Abbie J. Collins as executrix was confirmed and bond was fixed at $2,000. The appraisers are Tristram D. Babcock, Charles F. Allen and Albert Langworthy.

The final account of Michael Hanafy, administrator of the estate of John Lynch, continued from the last session, was not considered. The administrator had since first presentation of the account been authorized to place a monument in the family lot. This had been completed at an expense of $75. Attorney Frank H. Hineley represented four of the heirs. The account was approved and ordered recorded. There was a balance of $418.38. The court ordered distribution as follows: To Owen Lynch $59.78, to Francis Lynch $59.78, Ellen Conway $57.78, Margaret Devine $59.78, Elizabeth Champlin, daughter of Mary Fox, $59.78, Ann Hanafy's children, John W. Patrick H. and Michael E. Hanafy, $32.26 each.

Louise E. Babcock, executrix of the estate of John Clark, presented first and final account of the estate, which was approved and ordered recorded. There is a balance due of $50 as a legacy to Jennie Burdick, a minor, which upon petition was ordered deposited to her credit in the Washington Trust company and payable when the legatee becomes 21 years of age.

At the annual meeting of Mistuxet lodge of Mystic, Knights of Pythias, these officers were elected: Willington Travena, chancellor commander; Harry McKenzie, vice chancellor; Moses Craig, prelate; Amos R. Chapman, keeper of records and seals; Nelson Baker, master at arms; P. J. Butten, master of work; Herbert Chapman, master of finance; E. H. Newbury, master of exchange; John Chapman, inside guard; John T. Brooks, outside guard; William E. Lamphere, trustee; Moses Craig, delegate; Harry McKenzie, alternate to grand lodge for two years.

GOOD NEWS

Ladies Everywhere

are glad to know of the wonderful benefit that Viburn-O-Gin has always been to sufferers of their sex.

Thousands of ladies spread the good news among their neighbors and friends.

Others write letters for publication, that suffering sisters, unknown to them, may learn about it in the newspapers.

So the good word goes on.

Viburn-O-Gin is a purely vegetable compound, containing no harmful properties, is actively specific in its curative action on the womanly organs and functions.

To young and old it is highly recommended for the treatment of all forms of female troubles.

Testimonial

"I had been a great sufferer for years before learning of Viburn-O-Gin. I had misplacement, fainting spells, constant headache, and other female troubles, which made me feel very weak. I tried different doctors, but none gave me relief, so I took Viburn-O-Gin and it relieved me so much that I want you to spread the news of what it has done for me. It certainly will do as much for other sick women."
